Please give examples.

Current policy interpretation and program service delivery is critical. If the Agency is not responsive, death or serious injury to Kansas citizens could occur. Failure to perform essential functions would cause severe financial and emotional hardship for customers. Failure to monitor program operations could result in impaired or ineffective service delivery to customers. Personnel management is imperative to ensure actions are taken which comply with civil service and other guidelines established through statutes or regulations. Failure in this area could result in the Agency's liability or lawsuits.

24. For what purpose, with whom and how frequently are contacts made with the public, other employees or officials?

Regular verbal and written communication is necessary with staff immediately supervised. There is also communication and collaboration with other agency program administrators, supervisors and administrative staff. Frequent contact with the public includes contact with other agencies and speaking engagements. Communications are made to ensure that policy and procedures are correctly followed and that concerns are addressed in a responsive, time-sensitive manner.

25. What hazards, risks or discomforts exist on the job or in the work environment?

The overall administrative program responsibilities involve stress on a daily basis. Decisions made affect individual and family situations. May deal with angry and hostile individuals. The potential exists for normal travel hazards associated with automobile travel in the assigned territory and to attend meetings throughout the state. The potential for legal liability exists.
